

Monica Sue Mendez

August 31, 1996 - August 29, 2018

Mendez, Monica Sue
Saginaw, Michigan

Monica passed away unexpectedly on Wednesday, August 29, 2018, just two days from her 22nd birthday. Monica was born on August 31, 1996, in Waco, Texas. She is survived by her mother, Amanda Hodgins; father, Daniel Mendez; brother, Micheal Mendez; grandparents, Kimberly Sauve, Edward and Debra Hodgins; great-grandmother, Patricia Nevarez; aunts and uncles, Amber Hodgins and Kyle Hodgins; great-aunt, Tammy Maynard; niece, Elizabeth Pyman; cousins, Stay Weiss and Scott Hall; also several extended family and many dear friends, Zac Belwood, Olivia Gallardo, Misty Lynn Winters, and Kyle Jaksa.

She was predeceased by her grandfather, Jon Sauve and great-uncle, Jake Maynard.

Monica had worked as a waitress but her passion was being an artist. She was one of the most kind and best souls to walk this Earth. She was loved and cherished by so many. In these rash times that we live in, it is a disservice for us to lose someone so young and deserving. On the eve of her twenty second birthday selflessly asked not for gifts but to raise money for the ASPCA .She was and will always be loved by all of us and to quote Nick Drake a favored artist of hers, "Time has told me you're a rare, rare find; a troubled cure for a troubled mind".

Monica's memorial gathering will be held Monday, September 10, 2018, from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. at the Wakeman Funeral Home, 1218 N. Michigan Ave., Saginaw. Cremation will follow. Those wishing to make a donation in memory of Monica are asked to consider Monica's GoFundMe account or provide your contribution at the funeral home. If ever you'd like to contribute to her legacy, any local music or art charities are causes she would smile down upon always. “ I went to school with Monica back in Zilwaukee International Study School. She was, to me, like a sister. She had a bigger heart than I did. I have a lot of memories with her. She was the kind of woman, if you needed a shoulder to cry on, she offered hers. She was funny. She had talent. She was brave. She was kind. She was always a positive influence in my heart and everyone else's. This is a late post because I just found this out. I have been gone for a while. Once I found this out. I broke down and grieved for weeks. Now I have the strength to post how I feel and spread my condolences to all those out there who know Monica and were impacted by this. Know that I am going through what you all are going through. I ask you all to be strong and take this one day at a time. Monica wouldn't want to see you fall. She would want you to keep getting up and move forward. Be strong my friends. She will always be in our hearts and memories. Use those as a motivator to move forward and stay strong. If any of you need a shoulder to cry on or someone to talk to, here's my number: (616)-251-4016. My name is Codi Thomas. Feel free to call. I know what you all are going through and grieve along with you all. Just be strong and take it a step at a time, my friends. It's what Monica would want. You all have my prayers. Be strong.

“ I knew Monica as a regular customer at Hollywood where she worked. She always had a bright smile on her face and I looked forward to guessing her hair color and talking to her every time I went in that store. She probably never knew I still thought about her. Heartbreaking. Never give up. RIP lovely Monica.
