“ Oh Sandi how you made me laugh! Growing up next door I have more memories than I could possibly share here. From tea-time with my mom to the blue convertible racing up the driveway, country music coming from the radio. Sandi was never shy of a good time and she could certainly take a joke! I'll miss her dearly.

Lauran and family my love is with you during this difficult time and always. Even though Sandi always cried and cried when we would say goodbye I know we have so many fun memories that we can laugh and smile through the tears. She'll forever be in my heart. xoxoxo
