“ I was so shocked and sorry to hear of Scott's passing. He was such an upbeat, kind man and always said hi to me at Kroger in Saginaw.I looked forward to talking to him when Scott and his brother came through my line. I knew him as not only a customer, but as a classmate and former friend from AHHS. He used to make jokes in class and constantly teased me. My prayers and thoughts go out to his family for comfort and peace.

“ Scotty Pants. My forever friend and big brother. Where do I even start? The other day I had to have the water company come over- during working hours. You know where this is going- I typically would have called you and you would have met them there for me. But that wasn't an option this time- and I hated that. I know you would have been there if you could have. I appreciate every single time you filled in the blanks for me and covered for me when I couldn't be there. You taught me to be dependable— that was one of your greatest qualities. I should probably also apologize for the countless nights I spent playing Eminem's song “River”.. (which you introduced me to) I know I drove you nuts putting that song on repeat I'M SORRY!! I love you— I still haven't listened to it since your passing. I'm not ready for that yet, but I will be soon because I bet you'll light up heaven with your laughter when you hear it playing. I'm also sorry for making those terrible turkey tacos like 5 years ago. Those were awful and you ate them with a smile. (You were seriously gagging eating those things) Haha Again- one of your greatest qualities- you were so sweet and empathetic to those you loved. I could go on and on but I'll leave you with this—I promise to always be here for your babies. To keep them close and help raise them right. I will always show them pictures of their daddy and share our stories. They will know the man you were and they will want to live up to the man you always were for all of us here on Earth. Thank you for your flawless friendship throughout the years. You will always always be my one and only big brother. I miss you Scotty Pants and I will always carry you with me. Love you so much 🌸🌸🌸
