“ Roger, Brenda and Matt, I will always remember having you all visit when I was a kid and your parents played a movie of their wedding on the wall of our garage. I remember when they rewound it and the wedding cake was coming out of their mouths instead of going in! Oh how we had a big laugh at that! She was a special lady and a dedicated mom. I pray all the memories you created with her will give you some comfort until you can smile when you think of her and all of the things you did together as a family. God bless her loving soul.

With sympathy,

Wayne and Deb Rivette
