“ I have many fond memories of Andy and the times I spent with the Charles family growing up. They took me under their wing, spoiled me rotten, laughed with me, cried with me and just plain became like family. I know Andy would want me to remember him for the joke-ster he was and to laugh through my tears! Rest in peace my friend and thank you for being a very dear and treasured part of my life. The neighborhood will not be the same without you! Love,
