“ Anna Rose, as she was affectionately known to us, will be missed. We, her friends in the bible class, loved her. She was a wonderful example of Christian love to all. She loved her family so much.....unconditional love. She shared how much she looked forward to her granddaughter's wedding.....how she hoped to be able to dance with her.....maybe not the polka, but a nice waltz. Now, instead of dancing with Sasha, she will be dancing with Bob. I know he was waiting for her. Know that her deep faith sustained her.....it is what she wants for each one of you. Peace, Lois & Stu Drew

“ John 11:25-26 - Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this? KJV

I am comforted to know that Anna is with Bob and all of her relatives that have passed before her. She was a special person to me. The mother of my dearest friend Gretchen and she always greeted me with love. I remember that she and Bob helped at my daughters graduation in 1995 and she was there at my wedding in 1997. I celebrated birthdays with them at Bill Knapps restaurant many times and also shared Christmas celebrations with the family. She was so proud of her children and grandchildren. She loved to hear her son Tim sing and never missed a performance. I can't say enough good things about this lady. She left a wonderful memory in my heart.

My condolences to her wonderful family who made me feel like I was part of the family for many years. May you feel peace knowing that she has achieved eternal life.

“ We are away from home but want to offer our sympathies and prayers to your family on the death of your beloved mother/grandmother. We recall many wonderful conversations with both Bob and Ann, usually at church, and I (Sue) drove Ann to "Senior Lunches" a few times. We are keeping your family in our thoughts and prayers.
