

Barry A. Braun Jr.

August 13, 1963 - May 20, 2012

Braun, Barry A., Jr.,
Elberta, Michigan
Formerly of Saginaw

Barry A. Braun, Jr., left the bounds of this life on May 20, 2012. Barry also left a large footprint on life and in the hearts of those who loved him. He served his country as a Marine and saw this country as an OTR truck driver. He was, among many things, a football fanatic, enjoyed tinkering with cars, a saltwater aquarium enthusiast, music lover and gardener. Those he has left to mourn and remember him are his loving wife, Marilyn, his five children, Michael (Alyson) Braun, Alyssa, Ryan, Sean, Evan Braun and step-daughter Kayla Grewe; also his mother, Janice Braun, and step-dad, James Lentz. We will miss you always.

Private services will be held at a later date. Memories and sympathies of Barry may be shared with the family on his Obituary page at WakemanFuneralHome.com

“ Dear Jan and all of Barry's family, I worked at St. Luke's with both Jan and Jim and I remember when Barry had little Michael, a number of years ago, and now is a father of five beautiful children. What a blessing he has left to support each other through such a tough time! I am praying for you all. Sincerely, Bev Gilbert

“ *To Barry's family,
We are sorry we didn't say goodbye and give our love to Barry. Just know that he is with his Dad and Sister Lynn in heaven. We know our Lord will in time heal your hearts. Love Uncle Jon and Aunt Ann*

“ *Dear Janice,
Duane and I wish to express our sympathy for the death of your Son. We wish we knew how to locate you to speak with you in person and share this time.
You are always in our thoughts.

“ *One of my first memories of my dad is of us watching Beavis and Butthead. :) That was my dad. He wasn't always the most responsible guy in the world, but I could always call him when I got sad, and he understood exactly how I felt. I'm gonna miss that the most. He will be sorely missed by me and my four brothers, and my whole family. He always had the ability to make anyone laugh.
I'm gonna miss you so much dad.*
