“ My heart is breaking but I know the pain she has endured and the daily frustrations she felt when she couldn't remember! My fondest memory I will always cherish is how she always made me feel loved and special. the love she had for her children is something I have always loved about her! The sparkle in her eyes whenever her children or grandchildren were in the room! These past few weeks we have done nothing but talk about happy memories and about her love for her family! to her it happened yesterday LOL the memories of her children were always right there and the love in her eyes would shine through! When I start to get tears in my eyes I realize this beautiful woman whom I cherish and love so much is now home with God and her beautiful boy Rodney and no longer in pain no longer crying inside because she couldn't remember something she is free of all the pain. We have a beautiful angel looking out for us up there and I know she will be waiting for each and every one of you to come home too! Rest in peace mom! I love you always! Joey, Greg, Kevin, Michael , David my big brothers I love to moon and back a million times you all were always right there for me and Renee the best big brothers I could ever add for and Renee oh my goodness Renee you love are my sister forever and always there is nothing in this world that I wouldn't do for you.....the bond we share is unbreakable no matter how much time or distance there is we will always be right there for one another 24/7 I love you more then words could ever express! You were your momma's sweet princess her BABY! all of you know that I sm here for you always! I love you all so much! Mary (Durbin) Corroa (honorary Revard LOL)

DR

SO VERY GLAD that I had a chance to talk to her a couple of times since last April. Bob and I were Rodney's Godparents and so very proud to have been asked to do that. She was more like the sister I never had and had the beautiful knack of making you feel right at home. So so so VERY sorry that we can't make it tomorrow. She has been in my morning prayers daily for the last 10 months. Much love to each and everyone of you kids and thank you for sharing her with all of us. Love. Bob and Dianne Rupp

“ So sorry to hear of your Mother's passing. She was a very dear friend. We had many good times together with our dear friend Doris. We wore the pavement down on Oakley St. We drank a lot of coffee and on occasion (depending on what time of day) a few brown bottles. Had many laughs, good times & made many memories. She was a wonderful person who will be greatly missed. Our prayers are for all of you. Love to you all. Barb & Jim Kelly

*Sincerely,

“ On behalf of myself and the entire Hammond family, please accept our sincerest condolences on the loss of your Mother. She was a loving and caring wife, mother, grandmother, great grand mother and friend to so many, she will truly be missed. It is very difficult sometimes to find the words that can offer any real comfort, but what I can offer is this...the depth of the sorrow we feel at the loss of someone, is a reflection of how much they were loved, and of how much they loved us. She loved her family with all of her heart, and you loved her...keep that love alive in your heart, and she will never truly be gone. May God bless you and keep you and may your Mom rest in peace in the kingdom of heaven. Sincerely, Janice Hammond
