“ Dave, has always been our insurance agent since Jim and I can remember... Probably over 30 years. Always there when you needed advice on insurance. He was the most gentle "man" and we both trusted him completely with both personal and business decisions.

We will miss him,

“ Dave Duclos, a true leader in his profession, his faith and his family. A generous man sharing his good fortune with many, many people. He wasn't one for the spotlight so he did things like all great leaders do, he led from behind. Those of us that had daily contact with him will forever be grateful knowing him and witnessing his humor, intelligence and his genuine caring about others. His spirit will live via those he touched. Dave, Peace be with you my friend.

“ David was a wonderful friend to me. I am Franck Geuder, Vancouver, WA. When we moved to Saginaw from Battle Creek, David was very welcoming to a newcomer. Our parents were good friends. David and I enjoyed doing many adventures together. I moved from Saginaw over 55 years ago, but occasional ly saw David at church or at his office. Our friendship will last forever, and I may soon go home to be with him forever. David was a faithful Christian and he touched, brightened, healed and transformed many lives.

I truly enjoyed getting to know the Duclos family through all our time together at Holy Cross Lutheran Church. It was fun having the boys go through youth group and on various trips together, and now seeing them with families and kids of their own is sign of how time flies and we all get older. Dave was a true servant of God working as a caring elder in the church calling diligently on members in his care. We shared many long conversations and emails over the years about our church work together. He will be missed for sure.

Dear Connie & Family,

Dave Duclos, it was an honor and a great privilege to work with him for so many years!! He inspired our "new" business (32) years ago with his work ethic, smile, politeness, & making sure we were well insured with the best rates. He was a brilliant man just like Sara said above.

I truly have missed him bouncing in our office with donuts to make sure we all were ok, and had what we needed for Insurance. He was always so positive with his disease.

May your faith carry you through this sorrowful time, and knowing that he rests in the arms of Jesus.
