“ I have very fond memories of Devere. We lived next door on 11th street in Saginaw... My name is Marta Garcia Osuna.....he was so handsome and kind....i especially remember when I was 12 we lost our sister Yolanda She was only 14 years old we had never experienced death in the family. We were so grieved....i felt so alone at 12 no one was caring I thought how I really felt. But then Devere Came and stooped down to by eye level. Held my hands and consoled me Really talked to me about my loss of My sister. “ I never forgot that” A real genuine act of kindness and concern. I know He is with our Lord. And being showered with Love. Our Lord. Is saying. Job well done. Good and Faithful servant.... Love and prayers. 🙏 To his family
