“ Bill and family, it was my pleasure taking care of Donna for the last four years. I will always remember her smile and that look she got in her big blue eyes when she was beating Bill playing cards. I know this is a difficult time, bit I hope that you can have some peace of mind and rest knowing that Donna is now dancing and singing with the angels in heaven looking down upon you. She is in a better place and has met her Father, the Lord. My prayers are with you. Natalie Switzer LPN.
