“ Hi Carol and other family members, I remember Dorothy and Doug at family gatherings as well as visiting us as a family. Dorothy was one of my mom's favorite cousins and was in my parent's wedding party. (my mom was another Dorothy, Dorothy Bauer Huegel, daughter of Julia Altergott and George Bauer) My deepest sympathies to her surviving sister Carol with whom I was also acquainted. I remember the other sisters and their families, as well. My deepest sympathy also to all the nieces/nephews and Cook relatives. Dorothy was always so friendly and happy when she got together with my mom. I am sure they are all together again. Pam (Huegel) Jordan

“ *Deepest condolences to the Cook family. I would have met Dorothy as a child, I remember going to many family parties in Saginaw. My mother was Valerie Altergott Barber. Daughter of David Altergott, Brother to Dorothy. The Altergott family came to America at Ellis Isle in 1904 and are few to be found today. This family meant a lot to my Mother who past in 1985. Prayers to you all!
