“ *Mim, I hope you have found peace and comfort. I miss seeing you and popping in to say hi. I am so happy that I was able to spend the last year with you. I know you were hesitant at first but you made so many friends. You became quite the socialite of your hall. Many miss you and speak of you daily. I wish you could have had a little more time to spend with your great grandchildren I know how they made you smile! You will be missed by many as my mom would say love you more.
