“ I was so sorry to read about the passing of Eleanor. My grandmother was Harriet Miller, a sister of Eleanor's mom Alberta. My dad was Bob Miller a first cousin of Eleanor. My grandma and dad always spoke so highly of Eleanor and all the fun they had together as children. I remember playing with Marilyn when we were children and how happy and loving her mom was. I have enjoyed talking to Eleanor occasionally over the years and catching up on all the family news. Please know that you are all in my thoughts and in my heart. With sympathy, Judi Miller Braun

“ Eleanor always had a kind word to say about everyone. I was fortunate to grow up in the same neighborhood in Carrollton that she raised her family. She was a hard worker and and you always felt welcome in her home. I received a beautiful knitted Christmas stocking from her in 1984 and use it every year. It is a special reminder of her and her family. Janet (Siemienkiewicz) Wood

“ We have so many memories of Aunt Eleanor; her wonderful, unique laugh (which she shared often); her generous, adventurous nature (she was always up for a card game, trip or 'let's go' spirit); and her wonderful memory. We always looked forward to her visits - and her stories of her adventures! While she will be missed, it's comforting to know that she is with George, Bill, Aunt Sinnie, Uncle Norman and her siblings and friends who have gone ahead of her. Love to her family, Sue, Sandy and Sally.

“ Aunt Eleanor was always a kind and wonderful woman. Some of my fondest childhood memories are from the summers that I spent at her house picking raspberries, playing in her home salon, and just having fun. She always will have a very special place in my heart, and I will miss calling her to pick her brain on family history. To my dear cousins, Marilyn, Cathy, Carol, Janet, & Bob, I will keep you all in my thoughts and prayers. May God be with you all and comfort you during this difficult time.

“ I never had the honor to meet you Mrs. Foley, but you leave a legacy of love with the wonderful daughters you have raised who have graced my own life. May we all one day share our love together as we feast around God's table and are reunited. You now join a host of angles which include members of my own family. For the everlasting joy you now share with all God's people of the ages, may your family, friends and loved ones here on earth be comforted in knowing they carry a piece of your heart with them forever.
