“ My father addison Butcher and Ethel were very close when they lived at Swan Haven. He predeceased her in 2015. Ethel would bake wonderful things for him and many others . She was a great help to him since he was 96 when he passed. They cared for each other a great deal. I enjoyed visiting her.

“ Ethel was like a second mother to me for many years. Her son Ken as my best friend and my sympathies go out to Ethel's whole family. Ethel treated me like one of her sons, but if I messed up she let me know. Ask Ken about the red basketball jerseys that turned out pink and her dryer also. I loved that wonderful woman and know that God has another caring Angel in Heaven.

“ Our family will miss Ethel very much. Each day when we pushed Pauline around in her wheelchair, we would always watch for Ethel. She was the shining light on the 5th Avenue at Hoyt. She would always say something to put a smile on our face. She knew many hymns and patriotic songs and at times we would sing them together. She would enjoy telling us of her love for Jesus, family and country, Hoyt will never be the same without her.

“ For many years Ethel was a helping angel to my parents, Al and Marian Tarrant. She took my mom on errands and to church, she visited often, she brought them many meals as well as her delicious baked goods (including my favorite angel food cake with the yummy frosting), and she always made them laugh! Thank you again, Ethel!

“ I enjoyed my visits with Ethel at Hoyt. No matter what we started out talking about it always returned to how kind and respectful you should treat others. We laughed, sang, talked and enjoyed the simple things in life. So glad I met her. GOD BLESS YOU.

“ Ethel was an amazing Christian who always had words of encouragement for me in my role as youth minister at Peace and for the youth program in general. She never failed to give me positive words of thanks and encouragement. She was a gift from God for me and my ministry. What an incredible lady!
