Mrs. Lubben spent her life in service to her Lord and her family and friends. She gave up her dream of becoming a nurse in support of Pastor Lubben's ministry and became a beloved preacher's wife in both Herron, MI and Saginaw, MI. She was actively involved in Bethlehem's Choir, Ladies' Aid, Altar Guild, Bethel Study teacher, Evangelism, visits to shut-ins, and Braille. She also enjoyed fun and laughter with her dear friends in her card club of many years. She raised her own children in a Christian and loving home, and also as many as 35 little children of families over the years. We rejoice that she now rests in the loving arms of her Savior and in her heavenly home. She will be dearly missed by all.
