“ Frank was like a grandpa to my kids. They we're not blood. But Family is of the heart. And boy did he have a heart he loved my boys. He truly touched their hearts. We will always miss his stories and all his jokes. He was the best man at my wedding. He took my kids on tractor rides in his back yard on his lawn mower, told them stories, and shared many other special moments with all of us. He had a dear Friend named Lorraine who faithfully enjoyed going out to eat, attending church, going to the legion, and much more.
