“ Fred I am so upset. Me and Nadia were talking about how close we use to be. We talked about how you were always there to chat. We helped each other. You were my Social Media assistant. I helped you later. You ever drive me to Tampa for my son's hickey game when I had anxiety driving there. That was you. We would spend hours late into the morning hours texting. You with your funny emojis or jokes and funny pictures. You even moved into my mom's mobile home for months before you bought your place. You were always lifting me up when I was scared of not finally making it and rasing my grands. I could always count on you to be there to chat late in the night. I can not believe I went to message you this morning because I had not seen a post. So I'm just finding out now when I saw your comments about you being gone. I wish I could have been there for you like you have always been there for many of us. You were loved. Heartbreaking.

“ Fred was a neighbor and friend of mine for many years in St Petersburg FL. I just recently found this and wanted to say he was a great person. He was one of the nicest people in the room and was always cheerful. Fred and I shared some great times and memories.

“ Fred was a great person as well as a great friend. I will always be indebted to him for reintroducing me to a great company called ONPASSIVE. Fred was always available to lend a helping hand to everyone. He had a great personality that everyone loved & enjoyed. Although we never physically met I can honestly say Fred is one of the best person I have virtually met in my life. Gone to soon but never forgotten. Continue to rest in heavenly peace my good brother. I love you.

“ Fred was one of the most dedicated, tireless, ever-positive, inspirational leaders I've ever met. He was a shining, loving example of what it means to be human, to be uplifting, to be selfless, to be real, to be generous of spirit, to be authentic, to be kind, and to be a phenomenal friend. I wept openly at the news of his passing. I know personally dozens of others who did the same. When a man's life affects his fellow human beings like that, you know he was sent by God. Thank you, Fred, for being my music-loving buddy and my dear, dear friend.

“ Fred and I have been online friends for 8 years. We would talk on the phone, chat online. Fred always had encouraging words to say when I was having a bad day or week. Fred and I along with many others have been in businesses together. He showed me Onpassive and we shared our dreams on what we were going to do. This is what Fred wanted to do first. "1st thing for me (Fred) is a housekeeper!! lol" I miss him every day, he was like family to me. Fred your Onpassive will make you proud. These are the last emojis that he sent me 🙏👍❤️📞
