“ Jerry was one of a kind! Always ready with a laugh and an appreciation of others no matter if you were an old friend or new.

He was always ready to lend a hand to anyone- no matter what the need and I, for one, will always remember the good times we had working on our old cars, shopping for treasures in his basement and dining out. I will miss him like a brother!

“ What a great picture. That captures Jerry. Warm caring and hard working. He always seemed to be busy doing something. He was always kind to me. I remember a very special moment when Jenine had gotten really sick with pancreatitis and they weren't sure if she was going to recover. Jerry broken down ...cuz he loved jenine so much. Watching a couple married as long as they were is a true testimony to a couple serious about their vows. May the Lord bless and give Jenine strength.

“ Jerry and Jenine were always together with my parents. Traveling up north during autumn, to see the colors. He and my dad and sometimes my brother and I would go fishing for perch. Jerry laughed so much, you could recognize him in a crowd. Hope and I are so sorry to hear of his passing! May God be with you and your family, during these times.
