“ We are sorry to learn of Jerry's death. Jerry was an active and valuable member of Faith Evangelical Lutheran Church in Saginaw while I was pastor there (Ardie was, too, until her death). He was a thoughtful and conscientious worker who always had the best interests of the congregation at heart and was a wonderful support to me in my ministry. He loved and spoke so proudly of his three daughters and all his grandchildren. "Well done, good and faithful servant; enter into the joy of your Master." (Matthew 25:21)
