

Gordon R. Sedwick Jr.

January 27, 1950 - March 14, 2023

GORDON R. SEDWICK, JR.

Saginaw, Michigan

Loving Husband, Father, Grandfather, Great Grandfather, Brother, Uncle and Friend passed away on Tuesday, March 14, 2023, at home at the age of 73, with his wife and family by his side. Gordon was born on January 27, 1950, in Saginaw Michigan, to the late Gordon Sedwick Sr. and Betty (Faust) Sykes. On September 28, 1968, Gordon married Donaldean (Ragan) Sedwick, his loving wife, in Saginaw Michigan. She survives him.

Prior to his retirement, Gordon spent many years in the bowling centers, not only in management, but also as an avid bowler himself. He was able to achieve a perfect game (300 game) and had a few 800 series as well. He loved volunteering his time mentoring and coaching youth in all types of sports. Gordy was most passionate about baseball, as he loved the game deeply. He was a huge sports fan, especially for the teams that his children and grandchildren played on. Gordon's happiest moments were when he was able to spend time with his family. It didn't matter if it was through coaching, having a cookout at the house, playing games in the front yard, playing catch, or shooting hoops in the driveway. One thing Gordy would always brag about was how he made 100 free throws in a row without missing.

Surviving besides his wife, Donaldean, are his beloved children, Gordon Sedwick III, Dana (Larry) Schaaf, and Lance (Kelly) Sedwick; his grandchildren, Michael G. (Casey) Schaaf, Marissa Sedwick (Scott Russell), Allison Schaaf, Scott Sedwick Jr. (Allyson Schuster), Julia Sedwick, Garrett Sedwick, Justin Sedwick, Payton Sedwick, Aleana Skeens, and Zander Sedwick (mother, Danielle Kelbey); his great grandchildren, Evelyynn Russell, Oliver Sedwick, Chandler Schaaf, Brynlee Sedwick, Veronica Russell, Michael L. Schaaf; his siblings, Daniel (Mondo) Sedwick, Kenneth (Doug) Sedwick , Debbie (Randy)Wright; his brothers-in-law, Dewey (Chris) Ragan, and Dan Ragan; many nieces, nephews, extended family, and friends. He was also predeceased in death by his son, Scott Sedwick Sr., his brother, Stephan Sedwick, and his sister-in-law, Judy Ragan.

In accordance with Gordon's wishes, cremation has taken place. A memorial service will be held on Saturday, April 8, 2023, from 12:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. at Thomas Crossings club house, 1723 Cranberry Lake Circle, Saginaw, MI 48609.

Memories and sympathies of Gordon may be shared with the family on his memorial website at WakemanFuneralHome.com

“ Geordie and I grew up in the Yauck subdivision in Buena Vista. We used to play pick-up baseball games on a tiny lot on the corner. Hitting the ball over the road was a “home run”. The neighbor across the road had a big picture window. She would sometimes confiscate our ball because she was trying to keep her window safe. She would eventually gave it back. I haven’t seen Goldie in many years but have fond memories of those times! My sympathies to his family.

“ Sincere condolences to the Sedwick family at this time of loss. I am the wife of Gordon E Bourland who is the son of Frances Sedwick Bourland Launstein. Fran is the sister to Gordon Sedwick Sr. She is presently 96 years old and living in Wisconsin. I have been working on a Bourland/Sedwick family tree since 2006. Reading Gordon Sedwick Jr.'s obituary, I am unable to place two of his great grandchildren: Oliver and Brynlee Sedwick. Will someone in the family clarify who their parents are for me so I can place them correctly in My Family Tree on Ancestry.com? I will be extremely grateful.
Our thoughts and prayers are with the entire Sedwick family,
Carolyn (& Gordon) Bourland
