“ Hannah and my mother-in-law, Doris Beffrey, were beautiful friends "back in the day". They had units at West Chester Village. Together she and Hannah spent precious time with our oldest son, who is now 32. He could not say Hannah and called her Yannie. Grandma Doris watched him during the day for us and he loved his time with Yannie and Grandma, they lunched, shopped, played games and took rides together. I can still see Hannah's big smile and hear her booming voice. Oh the fun times they had. Plus there were countless times I heard of Doris and Hannah's bingo adventures. Good memories, good times. My prayers and sympathy are with you all, may your memories bring great comfort to each of you.
