“ Our family has lost its patriarch, and my heart feels heavy with sadness. Jim was such an extraordinary figure of kindness and love, and we will miss him. We really enjoyed the times we shared with him when we visited the family in Bradenton during the winter months. He kindly shared those Koegel hot dogs he carted all the way from Michigan, and whenever I see Koegel in the stores up north, I think of my oldest cousin, who brought them to Rutherford reunions, too. All my memories of Jim are warm ones. To Nancy, Sue, Eric and Jamie and the grandkids, and to my cousins Warren, Pat, and Jack, and families, I send my love and deepest sympathy. John, Johnny, and I are so sorry that we are unable to attend Jim's funeral. He was so special to all of us.
