“ Got to telling stories to my kids about the old Saginaw neighborhood and I rememberer we couldn't enter the woods by Jamie's house or we would get chased. Not in a mean way. He just chased us because it was the 80s. So it became a fun adventure for us to sneak around, run recon, track his movements, so we could run when he wasn't looking. Another time he set up a boxing ring for all the neighborhood kids. I was kind of on the smaller side so he took me aside and gave me the thinner boxing gloves so my punches might hurt more. Then he kept coaching and cheering me on as I fought. I think I won a few fights or at least that's my memory. Just a good memory that Jamie took it upon himself to toughen up the kids in the neighborhood. Sorry for your loss to all his family and friends.

“ Jamie was like a father, a brother, and a crazy uncle to me. But most importantly, he was my closest friend when I had no one. I will miss you brother.

“ My sympathies to Connie, Julie, Lori, and Christy. You and all of your family are in my prayers. I remember Jamie catching garden snakes and frogs in the neighborhood. He was such an adventurous boy with a sweet smile. May God be with you all at this difficult time. So, so sorry. Christine Curry Schmidt

“ Many great memories of Jamie, the best of them were fishing on the river in our spot with our kids when they were little, also jam sessions and there were a lot of them, he was an outstanding drummer and we made a lot of awesome music together, all original stuff that we made up, and it was heavy as you can imagine, we love the metal! Jamie and a few of our friends are die hard King Diamond fans, he loved the King and so do i, we had a lot in common and spent a lot of time together, i will miss talking hockey with my best buddy and all the fun stuff we did together. I will say this, he loved Mom and his girls more than anything and wanted nothing but the best for his daughters. We will all miss you Shammy, (our nick name) My deepest sympathy to his Mother Connie, sisters, Lori, Julie, Christy, and children, Nikki and Jamie Lee and there Mother Jennifer, and the the entire Young family. Also the Meyer family whom which i was married into include, my wife Linda, Connie, Patty, Nancy, Ann and William and many, nieces, nephews and cousins. Our prayers are with all of you. RIP James Young. Much love, Uncle Geoff

“ I will miss Jamie. The last time I seen him, I gave him a big hug and he gave me that big smile he always had for everyone. It's just not fair he was taken from us, he really had just got his life back and was enjoying spending quality time with his family. I will never forget Jamie. Rest in Peace my sweet nephew!
