Chris,

Condolences to you and your family, you probably do not know who I am, you were just an infant when your dad and I lost contact. I use to work in Real Estate with him at Makranis R.E., we were very good friends back then, he and your mom and my x-husband use to hang out now and then after work. May Jeff rest in God's loving arms and may peace be with you.

*Blessings,

I am so sorry to hear that Jeff has left us. Chris it is never easy to loose a parent and my thoughts and prayers are with you. I know that he is watching over you and your family. I will always remember his sense of humor and his kindness. Traits that are hard to find these days. Something you can be proud of. Stay strong. I'm sure your wondering who the heck I am. I am an old family friend and we were related at one time, long ago. But I still am close and love and follow the family. Love you and yours.

“ Chris,
I was shocked and saddened to hear of Jeff's passing. From the time he first came into 7-11 when I worked there he was the little brother I never had. Through many years it was that way and Jeff was always there when needed. We had our trials together and always tried to help each other. So, sorry we hadn't spoken in a while. In my heart he will always be my "Little Brother". My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family today. My love to you always .

I know this comes a bit late. I was shocked and saddened by Jeff's passing. He was my paperboy way back when. What ever Jeff did, he did his best. He enjoyed talking with my now deceased husband, and my Husband enjoyed Jeff's company. I haven't seen Jeff for awhile. But when we did see each other he always had his engaging smile. My prayers go out to his family, please know I will always remember how kind Jeff was and so willing to help people in need and never expected anything in return. God Bless you Jeff and rest in peace.

“ I am deeply saddened by the news of Jeff's passing. Jeff was my manager at Admiral on Holland Ave for many years, he was a great guy to work for. He always had a big smile on his face & a good sense of humor. We remained friends for the years that followed his departure from Admiral, it was always nice to catch up on news with him when we would see each other. Jeff stopped by my job earlier this year for a quick chat, somehow he always found me during our busy lives. My deepest sympathy to his son Christopher & his mother Mrs Silvernail. Gone so soon. R.I.P Jeff.

“ Jeff was my birthday buddy. We were born the same day of the same year. I knew him from my grandparents' neighborhood, and then in 6th grade we shared a table at Hartley nature camp. We went to VLHS together, and the day the Berlin Wall fell we celebrated by going to the Quad to see Look Who's Talking. I remember how proud he was to show me Christopher's footprints on his arm the day he was born. He even sold the home I grew up in for my parents. I'm so sorry to hear of his passing, but am so excited that he will be having the BEST Christmas ever by celebrating with the Savior Himself! Looking forward to seeing him again. My prayers are with you...
