“ Our family sends our deepest sympathy to your family for your loss. I lost my father in law 3 months ago and found alot of comfort from promises in the Bible. One in particular is found at Isaiah 41:10. I hope this will give a bit of comfort to your family as it has us.

“ The family of 'Jo' Greene. In the late 60's, Joan and I lived about 3 blocks apart and we both worked at Michigan Bell. For a period of time, we rode to work together in my Volkswagen. What a wonderful, delightful lady she was. Many years later, I saw her at Michigan National Bank on State St. and we had a nice 'reunion' visit. My sympathies to all of you on your loss. My prayers are with you. Sylvia (Halas) Reimus “ My prayers go out to the family. I worked at Malleable Iron in the late 70's and got to know Joan well, what a great person! She new my mom & dad and would always ask how they were doing. I saw her again when I worked at Local 699, we shared a lot of laughs about how things had changed. She loved her UNION! Again, what a great person she was, I will never forget her.

Sincerely, Jackie Kaczor-Gerhardt
