“ I first meant John in 1967 I was 14 and he was 13, we formed a friendship immediately. When we were in our early 20's we were roommates. I was honored when he asked me to be best man at his wedding. John was more like a brother to me and me to him. The last few years we only seen each other occasionally but always picked up our friendship right were we left off. John was the type of friend we all should have. He was always there when you needed him. I could go on and on about all the things John and I did together but just knowing him made me a better person. Thank you John for all the fun times and memories...Danny Sedwick

“ I had the great pleasure of meeting John back in there early 90' s while living at the old Ipple building on court Street. I couldn't have all for a more caring, fun loving, handy man,. The memory that sucks with me the most is when we were eating Vintage point tamales and he starting choking on a bone, and him telling me to the hymelic on him and almost breaking hours ribs.RIP big brother.

“ John and I worked together for over 10 years at St Paul's and had become very good friends. How do I know we were friends? On day at work we had a bad disagreement yelling at each other and he stormed out my office just swearing and about noon he came back to my office and said, "Hey Bet, what are we having for lunch". Even while working at Birch Park, when I would go over to help out, we had lunch. I could call John at home when I was working on a project at my house and he would talk me through it or come over and help me do it. He was a hard working man, he worked when he was not suppose to be working (because of health issues), he would still come to work and wouldn't let you know until the condition had passed. So my friend, take your rest. God knows what's best. My prayers go out to the family.
