“ John was one of the first of many dear folks I met when I became interim organist at Holy Cross in May, 2011. He & his trusty trailer helped us move, get settled, & make home & church wonderful. He loved that we bought the former home of Annette’s sister’s family, close to where he grew up. John & Annette attended many of our special musical events, & kept us close to the Holy Cross family of faith for several years. A wonderful man of God, may he rest in the Lord’s peace, and rise in glory!
