

Joyce May Burr

June 17, 1936 - March 23, 2010

Burr, Joyce May (Jansen), our beloved mother, grandmother and great-grandmother passed away peacefully on Tuesday, March 23, 2010, at Covenant Medical Center – Cooper, after a short illness. Age 73 years. Joyce was born on June 17, 1936, in Saginaw, to the late Cornelius (John) Jansen and Ruth (Miller) Jansen. She was married to Richard Lee Burr on August 7, 1953 in Curtisville, MI. Surviving are one son and one daughter and their spouses, Richard Jr. (Janine) Burr; Patricia (John) Bannerman, all of Saginaw; six grandchildren, Richard III, Daniel (Megan), Kathryn Burr and Aaron (Carrie), Adam, and Jill Hoepfner; two great-granddaughters, Marin and Makenna Hoepfner. Joyce is also survived by one sister, Maxine Lee and two brothers, Newell and Bill (Addy) Jansen, and several nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by both of her parents, her husband, Richard, son-in-law, Rodney Hoepfner, a granddaughter, and by two sisters. Joyce enjoyed trips to the casinos and spending time with close friends, Amelia and Alice. She also enjoyed collecting porcelain dolls, vintage McDonald's toys and watching NASCAR on the weekends.

The family wishes to thank the nurses of Covenant – Cooper, 3-East, for their loving care of Joyce.

The celebration of Joyce's life will be held 1:00 p.m., Monday, March 29, 2010, at Oakwood Mausoleum. The Rev. Charles F. Buckhahn will officiate.

“ My love and prayers are with all of the family, as you celebrate Aunt Joyce's life. I wish I had known her, my memory of her is from childhood. Just know that her pain and suffering is over. Have faith in the belief of a resurrection to a paradise world where there is not more illness, no pain of any kind. Remember all the good times you have shared, the joys and blessings in your lives. With you in spirit and prayer.
