

Mrs. Joyclyn M. Senyko

May 26, 1941 - January 6, 2023

Mrs. Joyclyn M. Senyko
Saginaw Twp., Michigan

Our beloved Joyclyn Marie (Mazany) Senyko, born May 26, 1941, was the daughter of the late Roman and Rose (Walat) Mazany, and was the eldest of their five siblings. On January 6, 2023, Joyce lay peacefully in her bed at St. Francis Home, in Shields, when the Lord called her. She departed this earthly life for her eternal home in Heaven at the age of 81. A graduate of Saginaw High School, Class of 1959, Joyce would eventually find her way working at Saginaw General Hospital as an Admitting Supervisor, where she remained until retirement and where she returned for volunteer work after retirement. In August of 1960, Joyce married Daniel F. Cox and they had two children together, Teresa and Linda. In November of 1963, Joyce lost both Daniel and Teresa in a carbon monoxide accident. Joyce and Linda had to take on the world together. Learning and experiencing so many things on their journey, Joyce was able to find the strength to put the pieces back together. She met and fell in love with a wonderful man and on December 11, 1970, she married John Senyko. Together, they had one son, Michael. John would adopt Linda and the four of them filled their lives with many wonderful friends, pets, travels, and happy memories. Over the years, John and Joyce traveled to five continents and many different countries.

Joyce was predeceased by her sister, Cecilia Fallstick; her brothers, Douglas Mazany and Daniel Mazany; her daughter, Teresa Cox; her brothers-in-law, Pat Slominski and Edward Senyko; and her beloved cats, Sneakers and Max. Joyce is survived by her loving husband, John Senyko; her daughter, Linda Cox; her son and his wife, Michael and Kristen Senyko; granddaughters, Emma Senyko and Melissa Nordquist (partner C.J. and daughter Izalea); grandsons, Connor Senyko and Daniel Cox (fiancé Tina & girls); sister, Teresa Slominski; sisters-in-law, Jan Mazany, and Janet Senyko; brother-in-law, Ken Fallstick; cherished Florida friends, the Carney Family; and many other nieces, nephews, cousins, and treasured friends.

Friends are invited to join in the Celebration of Joyce's life, which will be held at the Wakeman Funeral Home, located at 1218 N. Michigan Ave., in Saginaw. The service will begin at 11:00 a.m. on Wednesday, January 11, 2023. A visitation will precede the service beginning at 9:00 a.m. until the time of the service. Pastor Douglas Jackson will be officiating. A luncheon will follow immediately after the service at Community Baptist Church, located at 8331 Gratiot Rd, Saginaw. Joyce will be laid to rest in a private family burial in Oak Grove Cemetery, South Branch, MI.

Those planning an expression of sympathy are asked to consider memorial contributions to Community Baptist Church School. Memories and sympathies of Joyce may be shared with the family on her memorial website at WakemanFuneralHome.com

“ She was a friend I wasn't expecting. grateful for being able to share some laughs with her- ill never forget the dead pan blue eyes - when I asked her if she was intentionally ramming her wheel chair into my desk in activities to get my attention and she said yes- Jackie

“ My grandma was occasionally ornery and always stubborn, she had a laugh that always ramped up by eyebrows raising and a small hiss that would escape from the corners of her lips before breaking out in a good belly giggle.
She was quirky and repeated stories so much that it irritated me sometimes from a lack of understanding.
Watching the grandma who used to pick me up for dance lessons, make construction paper houses with me, and taught me how to decedently enjoy snickerdoodle cookies go through the health struggles she did in her last years was immensely heartbreaking.
I miss her now, but I've missed her for so long already. I wish I could know her now, as the adult that I am today. And I wish I could have known her then... back when she was an adult like I am now.
Where I am now, she once once. Where she is now, I too will be. Or something like that...

So many memories. I'm thankful she's finally at peace.

Those memories are precious my dear daughter, and are something no one can ever take away from you. Grandma would want you to be blessed with good for your life and smile instead of frown when you think of her. She loved you immensely!

Chelsey, mom loved you like family you are so good to her. We all love you and are very thankful that you helped make her last years more fulfilled. I love that you encouraged her the way that you did as I am sure my dad and my family have. You took care of her as well as the other workers when we could not, and we will be forever grateful. Bless you and your family!
