“ Spent the evening with family at Aunt Judy’s house. Some cards were flying for euchre and maybe a “pop” or two. Her place looked awesome still decorated for the holiday. Brought back memories of old Christmas Eves for a couple of Wegener’s and a few Kenny’s ! Thanks for letting me tag along and be a small part of a really nice evening !

“ I was devastated when I heard that we lost you Judy. You will truly be missed. God gained a beautiful angel and even though you are not here you will forever be in my heart. You became such a huge part of my life these past 7 years. I will miss our long conversations over a glass of wine and our biweekly hair appointments in your living room. I will miss coming over and helping you get all of your holiday totes down to decorate for every season. Which by the way was always fabulous. I will miss seeing your beautiful smile and hearing the joy in your voice after finding treasures on your shopping adventures. Judy had such class and such a perfect eye for decorating. She especially took pride when she knew her family was coming in town. She loved to tell me stories of her son Kevin and daughter Wendy. She was so proud to be their mother. Judy's life was filled with love for her family and her love for God. She was one of a kind and will always be an inspiration to me.....

“ I was extremely shocked and saddened to learn of Judy's sudden passing on Saturday night. She was our neighbor for two decades, so I've known her my entire life. I will always remember her for her love of decorating. She would always decorate for the major holidays, and her house was always filled with light and festivity. If there was one word I would use to describe Judy it would be Godly. Her love for Him was evident in everything she did, from her faithful attendance at Mass every week (usually sitting in the front pew) to the "He Lives" sign that was always in her front window around Easter time. I will also always remember that she loved to shop. Nearly every day she went on excursions to the various stores around Saginaw. She loved to conversate, and she was always a great conversationalist. I have fond memories of helping her plant her flowers, sweeping out her garage and then talking to her on her front porch for a while, and many more. She will always be missed but she will never be forgotten. I know she is up in Heaven shopping; going for drives; decorating; and conversating with God, who she devotedly served during her lifetime. The world got a bit darker and Heaven got a bit lighter with her arrival there. Rest easy, Judy. Enjoy eternal life in Heaven and say hello to Barb for me.

“ Christmas time was the best with Judy, although Thanksgiving was a close second! If it wasn't for her, I would never have learned how to make a cheese ball. And boy were her's delicious! She was a gracious lady who looked for the best in others, and welcomed me whenever I came to town. I'm sorry I let these last ten years go by without seeing you, Judy. One final "cheers" to you.

“ Judy was a good friend. We had some nice times at her house when I would visit. I'll always remember how much she liked decorating her house & picture window for every holiday. I'll also miss seeing you & talking to you on Wednesday nights at church. You aren't in any more pain Judy. God's blessings to your family.

“ I'm so sorry to hear of the passing of Judy, as I knew her. She would come see me weekly at the beauty school, and I went and visited her at rehab years ago to keep her hair the best we could while she was recovering. Judy was a gift to my life, and I enjoyed her weekly visits the the beauty school all those years go. May her family find peace and comfort during this difficult time.
