“ Hermana "Grandma" Torrez, Genesis, Fili and I will miss you so much. We are thankful for your friendship, your fellowship and especially thankful for your love! I love you, we love you! You say hello to my Mama and Daddy please. I hear there are no married people up there, but if you hear someone say "viejo, si vieja" will that will be them! I will remeber visiting you at your apartment then later visiting you at your room. The area got smaller, but close quarters never hurt a friendship. I will remeber sitting by your bedside or next to you in your chair. I will remeber having supper with you and a Holiday Program we shared. I will remember holding greeting you with a hug and a kiss and receiving both back in return. I will remember setting on your bed, setting off the alarm... watching a show with you (usually the Spanish channel)...reading a Psalm with you...sharing tibits of my family. I will remember introducing you to my Mother-N-Law. Wow, I feel like you are my family! I love you hermana. Save some room up there for me, although I hear there's many rooms in that mansion! Your's is a life that will always live on in my memory! -- con amor y carino siempre, su amiga Juanita
