“ *He was my grandfather... I love him very much and i know I'll miss him until my own dying day.
I'll always remember how said to me "hey, guy."
He was the best. It broke my heart when I found out what happened to him*

“ Larry and Mary came into Old Town Drive In everyday. We called them the “three, two everything people” (because that’s what they ordered) until we later learned their names. We looked forward to seeing their smiling faces everyday. We are saddened to hear about Larry and we are thinking of Mary and their family during this difficult time. Sending hugs and our condolences. -The girls at Old Town Drive In

“ I am so glad that I got to meet you. You gave me a tour around your home, I couldn't believe you grass was so thick! Feeding the squirrels, they will surely miss you. You shared your love of cars with me in pictures and lively conversation and you amazing popcorn. You definitely touched my heart. Love Sue and Jim Schlader
