“ Linda was a kind and loving sister. She took on a very strong and extremely important presence in my life after the passing of our mother. She was a constant support in my life even though we lived 600 miles apart, we spoke several times a week and visited as often as we could. Her passing has left a huge void in my heart. Thankfully she is in a beautiful heaven with our mother and the others that have also past. God bless her husband Art and sons Blair and Scott and their spouses.

“ What first pops to mind is when our sister Becky and I took a girls trip to see Linda in Michigan. We drove from PA. She took us to Mackinac Island. We had so much fun. We laughed and laughed. There are so many more wonderful memories. She was so loving. She spread her love with everyone she knew.

I'll always remember walking the Mackinaw Bridge with you and Linda, Art. You were doing a live feed from the bridge. Linda was a real trooper that day, agreeing to walk the bridge in spite of her dislike of heights. Please accept my sincere sympathy.
