“ Dear Carrie, John, Jim and families:

My heart is broken after reading the paper. My dear, fun loving friend is gone but with your dear Dad and having a beer and a good, hearty laugh. I was informed by a friend of your Mom and Dad's that she was suffering from cancer. I was shocked. I called your Aunt Gerry a couple months ago to ask how she was and if it would be ok to call her. She said it would. She was so happy to hear from me and we had a brief chat.

I will never forget her friendship and all the laughs we used to have. She was a dear, dear woman. I can still hear her saying things about another employee that trained her at the bank. I still crack up, thinking of it! :)

God needed another angel for his garden and He chose her. She and your dad are planting their seeds, making sure all is beautiful. You all have many, many wonderful memories to cherish the rest of your lives.

My deepest sympathy to all of you.

Love and Prayers,

Gail Votruba (Bauer)

“ Oh Mrs weiss, as you were known to me. Sonny's wife, Carrie's, john and Jims great mom. You shall be missed by me everyday. And yes you were a mom to me also. Thank you for always calling me a gentleman. You gave me always a special blessing everytime I got a hug from you. There was never a more special hug than from you. A hug that put life into your body like no other. I have been blessed by you in so many ways. Not to mention the great stories over a beer or two or three, I will do my best to show the world what a lucky person I have been just knowing you. I just loved visiting with you and we both laughed so hard telling stories, of the good old days. May God bless your family. Thank you for loving me with all your heart.....Patrick Buckley

“ *I didn't know Lorraine for very long, I met her through Carrie just a couple of years ago when Patrick and I visited Las Vegas a couple of years ago. I will always remember the wonderful hugs I was greeted with, as though she had known me forever, and all the laughter from all the stories from when Carrie and Patrick were growing up in Michigan.
She will be missed!

Lorraine became my Mom #2 quite some time ago, she was my bff's Mom. She never ceased to amaze me with her life stories, memories and wisdom, her talent (building a house, painting, crocheting)! I cherish each memory I have of her! and so thankful her family shared her with me! Love ya Mom #2, GO BLUE!
