“ The best grandma and rock of our family. I will always remember spending NYE at her house when we were little and banging on pots and pans at midnight, the countless games of bananagrams and UpWords we played, watching wheel of fortune with her when I lived with her and talking about us kicking butt on the show together someday, and all the wonderful advice she gave me through the years. I will hold onto the beautiful memories with the tightest grip. Say hi to everyone up there for me, until we meet again. Love you grams
