

Dr. Mark H. Engelhardt

July 27, 1969 - March 7, 2010

Dr. Mark H. Engelhardt, 40, a resident of Chelmsford, MA and formerly of Gilford, NH, passed away at his home on Sunday March 7, 2010, after a courageous yearlong battle with brain cancer. He was surrounded by his loving family.

Mark was the beloved husband of Dr. Patricia M. Hart, and devoted father to his two beautiful boys Grant and Hayden.

Born in Arlington Heights, IL on July 27, 1969, he was the younger son of Devere C. and Ruth M. (Mossner) Engelhardt of Gilford, NH, and brother of Michael Engelhardt and his wife Joanna of Charlestown, MA

Growing up in the Lakes Region of New Hampshire, Mark always enjoyed such outdoor activities as fishing, boating, and golfing. Also a spiritual person, he was a founding member of the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Laconia, NH.

Mark received his elementary and secondary education in Gilford, NH, and completed his Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration at the University of New Hampshire. After graduation, Mark was determined to pursue his lifelong dream of practicing veterinary medicine. His aspiration led him to East Lansing, Michigan where he became a Michigan State Spartan, graduating as a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine in 1997. He practiced emergency medicine for nine years before becoming a general practitioner and co-founder of the Chelmsford Animal Hospital.

Mark's family was truly his greatest treasure and legacy.

Mark is survived by his brother, Michael and his wife Joanna, of Wayland, MA, parents of Sophia and Dylan. Since his death in 2010, Mark's parents, Devere and Ruth have died and will be interred at the same time with Mark in Saginaw.

Committal service and the inurnment of the cremated remains of Mark, Ruth and Devere will take place 10:30 a.m. Saturday, April 27, 2024, at Holy Cross Lutheran Cemetery 4700 Brockway Road, Saginaw. The Rev. William Hessler will officiate.

Local arrangements are entrusted to the Wakeman Funeral Home, Inc., 1218 N. Michigan Ave., Saginaw.
