“ So incredibly sad to hear about your loss, Lori and family. Matt and I practically grew up together at Holy Cross. Matt and his family always treated me like family. New Years Eve was always the best on Court Street. May he Rest In Peace.

I wax at those New Years Eve Parties. You guys couldn't wait to drink the sparkling juice. One year you all drank so much, some of you were puking. 💕💕💕

“ Our sympathies go out to you Lori and family! We remember him from his Holy Cross Lutheran School days! He was such a polite boy with an infectious smile. We remember his grandfather often picking him up for school. Treasure his memories and he will also remain in your heart! May our loving God give you the peace that only He can provide.

In Christ,

Walt and Norma Halfmann

Former principal and kindergarten teacher at Holy Cross

Now in Odessa, Florida

“ Matt was always a polite quiet sweet boy when we lived down the street from him on Five Oaks. My son Daniel and Matt were inseparable from about age 3-13!!
God has his plans for us
At times those plans are very painful
Rest Matt
See you again some day
Keeping all of your family and friends in my prayers to get them through these tough times of loosing you so soon
