My sister was always there for me when I was trying to grow up. She went without eating so if I was dropped off to her house, all of a sudden she wasn't hungry. We shared so many travels together when I finally grew up and the laughs were endless. I loved her, and always will, more than I could ever express. Her beautiful, loving and caring children will always be a special part of my life. We grew up together, and they gave me so many laughs, as did their wonderful mom. I'll miss you my beautiful sister. You were the absolute best and I hope to be with you soon. Start planning out future outings! XO
