“ My dear Aunt Pat was my Godmother. That being said, she always made me feel special and would make it a priority to come visit me on my birthday and bring me a gift. I looked forward for that visit every year. It was always fun to visit Her and Uncle Rob and play outside with Robbie and my siblings. And of course she would have cookies and pop or cool aide for us on those summer days. And it was always fun to visit her and Uncle Rob at Christmas and see her pretty Christmas tree and decorations.

As the years went by I spent time with Her and Uncle Rob when he was ill in the hospital and then at their home when he was on Hospice Care. She showed a special and warm caring about her with him. I know she's in heaven and at peace with Uncle Rob and her other dear loved ones. God bless you and peace be with you in heaven Aunt Pat.

Love, Joan Sapak-OBrien.
