

Peter Charles Favara

May 1, 1929 - October 7, 2020

Favara, Mr. Peter C.
Midland, Michigan

Peter Charles Favara passed away on Wednesday, October 7, 2020, while in the care of Olson Manor, Midland, Michigan. Peter was born on May 1, 1929, in Saginaw, Michigan, to the late Dominic and Euphemia (Trentacoste) Favara. Peter was married to Maxine (Zaleski) Favara on September 9, 1950. She predeceased him as did nine of his brothers and sisters, his daughter-in-law, Karen; and his son-in-law, Tony.

Prior to his retirement, Peter drove a truck for the Walter P. Davis Company, worked as a meat cutter at Kroger, was a store manager for several of the Vescio's stores in the Saginaw area, and helped at Waltrus Market. His skills as a butcher were often used to help relatives and neighbors who were lucky enough to bag a deer. Peter loved music and sang all the time. "It Was A Very Good Year", was one of his favorites. He was bitten by the acting bug in high school and became known for his portrayal of "Scrooge" in St. Joseph's production of "A Christmas Carol".

In accordance with Peter's wishes, cremation will take place. The family will plan a memorial service at a later date. Donations in Peter's memory can be made at copdfoundation.org

Those wishing to express their sympathies and memories of Peter are welcome to share them with the family on his memorial website at wakemanfuneralhome.com

“ Oh Peter how I am going to miss you everyday I worked you were one of the main highlights of my day how much you hated when I wore my hair up at work you always tried to bribe me to take it down and how you would always say it's 9:30 almost time for me to leave an I would say yes an you would ask are you here tomorrow an I would say no it's my day off an you would say that's not right you should be here everyday and I would always tell you if I would I could be there everyday and as I would walk out of your room you would ask me to pull the door half way shut and you would tell me goodnight Dana I love you hurry back an get your day off over with! I could go on an on about you ! I know this is my job but every single one of you become my family an you hit a very special place in my heart an the day I was there with you in your last an I know I'm suppose to stay strong but I couldn't hold it together it never gets easier with the job but I do it cause I am made to be there with every one an I'm definitely gonna miss the moments when you and cowboy would be just sitting and talking everyday for a few hours through out the day I'm going to miss that ! And cowboy misses you as well we all do you were such an amazing addition to our Olson Manor family ! I love you my dear buddy this isn't goodbye this is just till we meet again ! Rest In Peace ! Love yours truly Dana and the whole family at Olson Manor!!

“ I had the pleasure of caring for Peter at Olson Manor and I can't thank the family enough for bringing him to us. He was a piece of the puzzle that glues our Olson Manor family together. He was always smiling and singing. He would tell me stories of growing up I could have sat and listen to him for hours. We all staff and residents love him and will miss that sweet caring loving man. May you rest in peace Peter you definetly deserve it.

“ Peter was a very special person to the Olson manor family and I was one of the lucky ones to help take care of him at the end of his life I will never forget him wanting me to let my hair down for him and his singing at the table to him needing a hug from us staff on a daily bases! Rest in peace my dear friend and you will be missed by the Olson manor family.....
