“ It is so hard to believe that my little brother is no longer with us. I can remember chasing him around the yard when he would do something to make me mad. I could always catch him and give him a wallop. Then one day he did something and I chased him and could not for the life of me catch him. I knew my getting him days were over. LOL I love you brother! Give hugs and kisses to Mom, Dad and Sally.

“ I'll never forget all our times we had spent together all the fishing trips and just jumping in my alero and going for drives. You taught me so much stuff now hopefully if my car breaks I'll be able to figure it out. I'm not sure how I'm going to make the girls feel better when they are sick because you always knew how to make them feel better or cheer them up. You were always that one phone call away. You would drop everything to come rescue me whenever I needed you. You always knew the right things to say when I was scared. You always calmed me down and made me feel so much better. I enjoyed all of our times going to the races and just sitting home singing together. I will always have love for older music because of you. I hope you knew how much I love and appreciate everything you did for me and the girls. You will be forever missed... I will miss getting your blackhead and cutting your toenails. If I could have you ask for one last back/neck massage. I'm simply just going to miss your presence being able to hug and kiss you. Being able to argue and make up right after cuz I never could be angry at you. We never went without and always had nice things. You truly were a great dad. I love you always and forever. Until we meet again. Fly High My Angel You Earned Those Wings.
I love and miss you so much Daddy! ❤️

“ Uncle Rick will be dearly missed and I will keep my memories of him close. I always looked forward to seeing him because he was the best story teller and he never told the same story twice. His little laugh at the end of his stories keeps playing in my head and it brings a smile to my face every time. He was such a generous and selfless person. He would give anything to make sure that whoever he was with was happy. I will never forget the time he came to visit up north and he asked if he needed to bring anything. My dad told him no we were all set. We had snacks and drinks and were ready for the company. Uncle Rick and Aunt Angie got there and here comes uncle Rick with bags of snacks and a cooler of drinks. He even brought the dogs some snacks! It was in his heart to make sure that everyone was taken care of. He was a genuine person. I'm sure going to miss him!! 💕💕

“ I am very saddened to hear this.

In the short time I knew Rick, It was very clear his generous and caring soul, as well as, his sense of humor, were unmatched. I just wanted to share with you, his beloved family, how often he spoke about you all. Especially, his beautiful wife, whom was undoubtedly, the love of his life. His children and grandchildren were always apart of our daily conversations. It always made me smile.

To my dear friend, your kindness towards me, will forever be engraved in my heart.
