“ Marilyn,

My name is Diane Hendrickson. You'll remember me as Carole Harris's sister. In fact, you made our wedding cake back in 1969. I recognized the Schaaf name and checked the Wakeman website. I wanted to reach out from the past to let you know I am thinking of you and saddened by your loss. Sincerely, Diane “ I’ve known Bobby for so many years.

My brothers best friend and friend of the family.
I have so many memories. He was a good guy, always helping anyone. I moved out of town years ago but I certainly remember him through the bowling years... those were fun times. My heart goes out to the family and I hope they can find peace. Your all in my prayers.
I love you Bobby and I’ll miss you so!❤️

“ My heart hurts for your family as you go through this very sad time. I only remember Bobby as a young boy during our visit to Saginaw but always remember his beautiful warm eyes. I see that didn't change over the years by his lovely picture on this post. God bless you and keep you as you grieve through this time of loss but have hope... we will be together again some day worshipping our glorious God all as one! Love you all, Karen (Schaaf) Gagnon
