“ I don't know where to start but will try.....Sarah was a beautiful, kind and loving person. There was always room in her heart for one more person. She was a giving , Christian woman who never wanted her good deeds to be known. I was lucky enough to work with her and be her friend. She taught me so many things by taking me under her wing. She taught me so many craft things to do and if there was a class in Bay City or Flint she would pick me up and we would be off. I remember one class showed us how to make baskets. She was always the bright spot in any group and there was much frivolity and friendship. Sarah made friends wherever she went and I felt privileged to be one of those. She knew that my favorite cake was pineapple upside-down cake and she would always make it for me. All the good deeds and blessings that she did were between her and her God. She never looked for credit. She was the most humble person I knew and I will miss her forever!!!!!! Pat B
