“ Sarah started out as my neighbor, then as my friend. For a short period even a little more. She was intelligent, funny, and a little nerdy which was endearing.

I just found out she passed away today. As with what happens in life she grew a family and we grew apart going our own ways.

Kate had it tough her entire life. I always respected her knowing she could have been an entirely different person because of that.

Instead she chose to be a wonderful person.

I'm truly at a loss for words beyond that. I hope she may rest in peace and her Son and Husband, friends, and family have also found peace.

The world lost a spark of brightness when she left.

“ Sarah and I were good friends back when we were younger and in choir together. In the past few years I was lucky enough to run in to her again. I am so sorry for your loss. She was a wonderful person and I know how much she adored her son. She will be watching over you both.

“ Miss Sara was so kind and caring to her little ones at First Ward. They loved her for her concern and compassion. She loved hearing them laugh and seeing them be successful. She was a wonderful mentor to them. She will be missed and remembered lovingly.
