“Blessed be the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ for giving his servant Steve 68 years on this earth.. Our three children, Philip, Laura, and Rachel, were blessed by being taught by him. During their years at VLHS, God prompted me to ask Steve to attend an Young Earth Creation conference out east that MS and PhD’s invited to. My one request was that he share the information received with churches and students. Within a month God provided all the plane tickets and spending money to buy any books or materials. That event enabled Steve to speak more boldly about our Almighty Creator God. He shared with me that besides marrying Julie, that event was the “second best thing” he had done in his life. God gives us blessings to bless others. Praise God that His servant Steve lived that life. Joyce Melcheck

“Being in his first class when he started teaching at VLHS, I still remember his infectious personality and that laugh. A true genuine and caring spirit with a passion for teaching that touched the lives of so many. Keeping his family in our prayers.

“ My cousin Steven has always, in our childhood growing up a fun and kind person. It's sad to loose touch as we grow up and have our busy lives. I will always remember our days when our families got together. So happy to hear he had such a wonderful life and touched so many others. My prayers for the families healing.

“ Mr. Zill, a man I miss and love. I feel blessed to have known this great man. Never did I leave him not in a better place. He would talk soccer with me and genuinely talk and listen. He would ask me how I was, my family, and genuinely listen and care. He was an amazing man that will leave a legacy through everyone he met. My family and I send our deepest condolences to his beautiful wife, sons, daughter, many grandchildren and all extended family members. Steve was a great man, made the world a better place, I can think of no better legacy.

“ I met Mr. Zill when I went back to school as a older student at Delta, it was a science fair.

My special needs son was about to enter 8th grade, we had been homeschooling and had a great amount of anxiety over sending him to school with his difficulties.

When I found out who Mr. Zill was, I talked to him about my concerns for my son, with a sharp look in his eye and a caring confident voice , Steve stated"bring him to me, no worries, I will take care of him"

This man did exactly what he said he would do, he took my son under his wing and helped him develop his talents and confidence, with Love and Christ in his heart he helped me raise a special kid who has now gone on to be a kind , caring , fruitful adult.

My family will be forever grateful for the man of Steven Zill.

Godspeed Mr. Zill.

May God keep his family blessed and protected.

“ "Oh my gosh" (to quote Steve), the life lessons he taught so many would fill this page but they all came down to this. "Love God" and "Love your neighbor." He took Jesus' words to heart and showed us that Jesus truly is the way, the truth, and the life.. Praying for God's grace and peace for Julie, his family and countless friends.

“ I've known Steve since 1972 when we met at Concordia. He was a man of faith, husband, proud parent and grandparent. A true teacher, of both school subjects and the Word. Scientist, yet a short earth creationist. Soccer addict, both player and coach. Golf disciple, both player and coach. A fisherman and a fisher of men. Shipwright; tomato lover; recording star; avid, voracious, reader; always questioning; praying for the waitress every time. True practitioner of Christian hospitality and steadfast friend. I see Him welcoming you saying "well done good and faithful servant." Hey Buddy, will see soon (and thanks for the golf lessons). Greg Rotter.

“ Mr. Zill contacted me on Facebook for my birthday every year asking how I was doing and I would give him updates on my life and he would pray for me and ask questions about my life. He was the most caring and compassionate man I have ever met. I pray God will wrap you with His comfort and peace during this difficult time.

“ Steve was a colleague and good friend during the years we were both on the faculty at Valley Lutheran. Truly a man of God who impacted the lives of so many students, parents, and fellow teachers. I can still hear his laugh. Julie and family, I pray that God will unfold you with the peace and comfort that only He can provide! Steve, I will see you again!

“ Our dear friend Seven (Mr. Zill) was truly a man of God, a prayer warrior, and a teacher of the word who loved people unconditionally and it showed.

He will be missed by all who knew and loved him, and our hearts are heavy with sadness for the loss of his knowledge, inspiration, and loving spirit.

Just this past Sunday he told the Bible Class (with excitement in his voice) that "I can't wait for God to take me home to Heaven."

Although we are sad for this tremendous loss, we are confident that, Steven (Mr.Zill) is at peace in the loving arms of his faithful Master, and Savior, Jesus the Christ.

“ Mr. Zill was a one of a kind. Both my kids had him for a teacher at Valley Lutheran. He was always upbeat and had a magic experiment to share with his students to accentuate whatever he was teaching at that moment. My daughter Sarah was assigned to him for two years as a student assistant. ("Organizational skills" were not in his tool belt.) We will miss you Mr. Zill.

“ I was the sports editor at The Township Times though the 1990s and can say Steve was one of my favorite coaches to interview. Always friendly, up beat and positive. He was also the only coach I would interview by phone who would sometimes get interrupted by a goat that "walked in" on him during our conversation. Just a super guy, and great neck ties.

“ Is there anyone who has never met Steve Zill?
Facebook would be out of business if it wasn't for everyone that knows Steve!

He was my best buddy, and we shared much discussion time together. We had the same interests, even politics . We shared books, rocks, seeds,... and coffee. I got Steve to drink coffee!
He will be so missed, but I'm sure Steve is laughing with someone else right now...

“ I met Steve when he visited my dad's 7-11 almost daily about 15 years ago. He always had time to hang around and talk, making sure everyone was doing well. “ Steve was the most Joyful Christian I have ever known.! His Life Song Sang His Response To Christ for Forgiveness, Redemption and Salvation! Steve was bold in the declaration of our Jesus and this free gift! He was a power and fearless nemesis of Satan, never missing an opportunity to unmask him to others! There never will be another Steve, but he leaves us a shining example of how to Live the Christian Life!

“ My wife and I knew Steve from Concordia Ann Arbor. Our paths crossed many times over the years. He touched our lives in so many ways. He touched our children's lives at Valley Lutheran. He touched the lives of the youth members at my church. God used him mighty ways. I will miss his authentic faith and his hearty laugh.

“ He was my best friend at River Forest and room mate. He made everyone feel genuinely, a friend to him and always regarded your thoughts and words. He expressed his musical admiration for Bob Seger as we played and jammed his music which was heard all the way down the dormitory halls. When I met Karen, my wife, he regarded her as a best friend to me and showed the same agape love. I had the privilege to keep in touch by Facebook every now and then, all the way up till Sept 11 this year without a clue of him having any health issues. It was never about himself, but you. What a man! Miss you as he would always say heartfully, "Later dude!"

Randal Tritch - October 07, 2022 at 09:47 PM

“ I can not say enough about this man. He was my only brother but also a very close and dear friend. He was always there for me in my toughest times. He prayed constantly for my well-being and I will never forget that. We would talk a lot but more so over these past few years. I enjoyed playing golf with him and just hanging out. I have never known another who could love so unconditionally for everyone he met. He truly was a beacon of light filled with the love of G-d to each and everyone he met. He will truly be missed. I still can hear him laughing across the golf course. His hug was an embrace of love that I will surely miss. Steven, I look forward to seeing you soon again. I love you, Janice
