“ Tammy was a champion for her children. She wanted to see her youngest graduate and did her best to put on a smile so he could focus on his studies. She never missed a parent/teacher meeting and was pleasant to work with. Her inner lioness came out if anyone or anything got in her way of doing the best for her kids. The world became a much smaller place with her passing. Prayers for peace and comfort for her family.

“ Loved our chats at The Bringer Inn. You fought this monster cancer with so much courage. You pushed yourself to the limit working so much. Your smile continues in the presence of the love of our Lord & Savior. No more pain. Sympathies to all the family.
