“ Terry was one of several cousins that were like an older brother to me. He enjoyed teasing and picking on me and Debby any time he could. Of course, we gave it right back to him. At other times, he was that protective brother. We also shared many stories and laughs with Grandma. We have sent each other birthday cards for as long as I can remember. He was always really proud of himself if he had an especially funny one and waiting to hear from me for my comments on the card. I will miss talking to him every few months on the phone about his family and the grandkids activities and still teasing each other. I will also miss getting that birthday card from him this year. Terry I love you and the memories and laughs we shared.
