“ My prayers go out to the Mueller family, Mr. & Mrs. Wilson, & Mr. & Mrs. Blasch. My heart is so heavy right now, but knowing that she's not hurting anymore, and she is at peace and in a better place, is comforting to know. I always called her aunt vernita, she was so good to me, and I loved her alot. she always welcomed me in her home. I thank God that I got a chance to hug her and talked with her before she took her flight to heaven, I'm going to miss her hugs.

“ My favorite memories of Aunt Vernita were at her Birthday / Christmas parties she used to have when I was a child. I looked forward to them all year. When she stopped having them; I promised myself I would pick up that tradition when I had my own house. I've been hosting family Christmas parties ever since I got my own house in 2000. Every year they remind me of the great times at Aunt Vernita's and Uncle Lyle's house. We'd shoot pool, play euchre, and enjoy the laughter that filled thier house. Uncle Lyle even showed me how to properly pour a beer from the tap; I think I was about 9 years old at the time. One year; Aunt Vernita received a stuffed Santa and a male stripper. After her lap dance upstairs; Aunt Vernita came downstairs, picked up the stuffed Santa and lifted its beard. A big stuffed male member flopped out. Vernita run back up the stairs yelling "I want to compare". She always had a light hearted, and a slightly dirty, sense of humor. I both admire and appreciate that. She was always friendly, outgoing, and a joyful. You just couldn't be sad around her. She will be greatly missed.

My sincere thoughts and prayers are with all of Vernita's family and friends . I will miss her humor and kindheartedness. I remember many things about her , but growing up I remember when her and Lyle would come over to the house and play cards with mom and dad. The house was full of laughter and great friendship. I was not aware that she had taken ill . So this has been a shock for me too. I will miss her, but now her and my parents can catch up on things in a much better place. They loved her very much too. She will not be forgotten.
