“ To the Panko Family:

Woody was a kind and thoughtful neighbor and I will miss our occasional porch chats where we sat and reminisced about our respective childhoods as neighbors... when we were kids, our mothers took turns driving us to school. I have fond (and funny) memories concerning those rides to, and from, school.

“ To the family of Woody Panko:

Woody was such a kind and mild mannered man. I used to tell him how much he resembled Neil Diamond and he would laugh and say, "I wish I had Neil's money." We grew up in BV and reminisced about old times often. I will miss seeing his smiling face. He was a great neighbor. May The Lord bring you peace and comfort during this difficult time.

Sincerely,

Rhonda Warren
